REPORT

Date February 2, 1937

Subject Case against Liang Ngho, ex-Detective Inspector, S.C.G. Police Bureau, before City Court for extortion and making false accusation against Commissioner Tsai. and Made by Supt. Tan Shao-liang. Forwarded by Detective Liang Ngho (李 訥) was taken on about a year ago by ex-Chief Detective Officer Chi Yuen Fu, but was dismissed in September last when Mr. Liu Hwa, the present Chief Detective, took over charge.

After leaving the Force, it was discovered that Liang Ngho, during his tenure of office had extorted a sum of $100 from a Buddhist monk named Cheh Yen living in the City, in connection with a charge of opium smoking but had failed to effect the monk's release as had been promised. The Detective had also filed a petition with the Executive Yuan charging Commissioner Tsai with receiving bribes from subordinates on their appointment and from opium smugglers who transported contraband to Shanghai.

This so enraged General Tsai that he ordered the arrest of this ex-Detective and handed him to the City Court for trial.

The case is still pending. It is doubtful whether the ex-Detective is in a position to prove his accusation against General Tsai and it is a certainty that he will be convicted on the extortion charge as the complainant (the monk) will appear in Court to give evidence.
